3.	Keeping records of contact details recorded in the contract to ensure contact is maintained.	Legitimate interest of the controller [Article 6(1)(f) GDPR]	For the duration of existence of the legitimate interest, but not more than 8 years pursuant to Section 169 of Act C of 2000 on Accounting.
4.	Establishing, maintaining and terminating contracts with external lecturers, instructors and examination board members.	Performance of a contract [Article 6(1)(b) GDPR]	Until the 5-year limitation period under the Civil Code.
5.	Issuing certificates of completion, issuing invoices, receiving and paying them.	Performance of a contract [Article 6(1)(b) GDPR]	According to Section 169 of Act C of 2000 on Accounting, 8 years.

Place of processing:

The data processing activities concerning the contractual partners are mainly carried out by the Directorate of Finance and the Campus Directorate, but some sub-tasks - selection, tendering, contract negotiation - are also carried out by the individual departments/project managers of MOME

Recipient of data transfer:

In accordance with its Procurement Policy, MOME regularly provides the Minister responsible for public procurement with information on its procurements below the public procurement threshold, including the names and addresses of the partners invited to tender and the name of the contracting party. In addition, data may be transmitted to the State Audit Office and the Ministry of Innovation and Technology as part of their audits.

Processor:

Saldo Informatikai Zrt. (1135 Budapest, Mór u. 2-4.) supports the performance of the tasks set out in this section.

8. Data processing concerning events

MOME processes the personal data of the persons invited to and attending events, meetings, gatherings (hereinafter referred to as: events) organised and conducted by MOME, for the purposes of organising, inviting to and conducting events, in particular for the purposes of admission to and documentation of events, as set out in this section. MOME may take pictures, audio and video recordings of the event for the purpose of documenting the event, making and publishing reports about the event and thus promoting MOME and its activities. In these images, persons attending the event may appear both in an individually indistinguishable way (as part of the crowd) and in a uniquely identifiable way (as a separate, stand-alone image of the person). MOME processes the following personal data in connection with the events:

- a) name, address, e-mail address, telephone number of the invited person;
- b) the image and voice of the participant.

	Purpose of processing	Legal basis of processing	Retention period for processed data
1.	Invitation to the Event.	Legitimate interest of the controller [Article 6(1)(f) GDPR]	For the duration of existence of the legitimate interest, but no later than 5 years after the event.
2.	Admission (entry) to the Event.	Legitimate interest of the controller [Article 6(1)(f) GDPR]	Until the 24th hour of the day following the event
3.	Taking images, audio and video recordings of the Event and using them in case of the photo or video images of a crowd of people.	Legitimate interest of the controller [Article 6(1)(f) GDPR]	For the duration of existence of the legitimate interest, but no later than 5 years after the event.
4.	The taking of images, audio and video recordings of the Event and their use in the case of an image that is suitable to uniquely identify the person, where it is technically impracticable to obtain or give consent.	Legitimate interest of the controller [Article 6(1)(f) GDPR]	For the duration of existence of the legitimate interest.
5.	The taking of images, audio and video recordings of the Event and their use in the case of an image that is suitable to uniquely identify the person, where it is technically feasible to obtain the consent.	The Data Subject's consent [Article 6(1)(a) GDPR]	Until the consent is withdrawn (for processing after withdrawal).

Place of processing:

The data is processed by the MOME Brand Communication Office and the IK Communication team.

Recipient of data transfer:

MOME will not disclose the data processed in connection with the events it organises and conducts to third parties outside MOME in the cases referred to in Sections 1 and 2. In the case of Sections 3, 4 and 5 the name, image and voice of the data subject may be used in connection with the processing of data in the context of MOME's external and internal communication activities (Section 12).

Processor:

In connection with the organisation of events, in particular for the purpose of access control of participants and the taking of pictures and video recordings, MOME may occasionally use the services of event management companies.

9. Processing of data in the context of the operation of the electronic surveillance system for security purposes

In order to protect the life and safety of people in public areas of MOME premises and the property owned or used by MOME, an electronic surveillance system (security cameras) is operated to detect and prevent offences and prosecute the perpetrator of the offence. In the course of this, the following personal data shall be processed:

- a) the image of natural persons (including Students, University employees) staying on the MOME premises.

19. Data processing in connection with the use of MOME's websites and newsletters

MOME does not collect and does not process any personal data of the users of the websites it operates (mome.hu; premome.hu, mome open.hu). However, the website user data – such as the data of the User's log-in computer that are generated during the use of the website – are recorded by the MOME system as an automatic result of technical processes, and the data that are automatically recorded are automatically logged by the system – without any special declaration or action by the User – when visiting or leaving the website. However, this data is not linked to other personal user data, i.e. the user cannot be identified on the basis of this data. Only the Controller can access such data. Occasionally, statistical data may be collected in a way that does not allow the identification of individual users – using Google Analytics software – in order to measure and monitor the number of visits to the website in order to operate the website properly.

If the user explicitly provides or makes available their personal data when using any of the services of the website – e.g. newsletter – MOME will process such personal data provided for the duration of the purpose of the processing or until the consent is withdrawn, on the basis of the voluntary consent of the data subject pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR and Section 5(b) of the Information Act.

MOME uses so-called cookies on its websites. Cookies are small blocks of data that the browser saves on the user's device at the request of the web servers of websites. Websites temporarily store information that is important to them in these small blocks of data, to provide services through the websites, to improve the user's browsing experience and to analyse the data on the number of visits to the websites.

Purpose of processing		Legal basis of processing	Retention period for processed data
1.	Ensuring the proper functioning and functionality of the MOME websites, customising the content available on the website, providing community features.	The processing is based on the voluntary consent of the data subject, pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR and Section 5(b) of the Information Act.	The User can delete his/her own cookie at any time, otherwise cookies are deleted automatically depending on the browser setting.
2.	Use of the e-mail address for processing the registration for newsletters and sending newsletters (including sending advertising).	The processing is based on the voluntary consent of the data subject, pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR and Section 5(b) of the Information Act.	Until the consent is withdrawn.

Place of processing:

Data processing is carried out by the MOME servers.

Recipient of data transfer:

No data is transferred outside MOME when using the MOME website.

Processor:

The operation and IT support of the websites is provided by 2 sole proprietors (private entrepreneurs) contracted for this purpose. MOME uses the services of Mailchimp (The Rocket Science Group LLC, 675 Ponce de Leon Ave NE, Suite 5000, Atlanta, GA 30308 USA), as the technical service provider for the registration of the data provided by subscribers and for the sending of the newsletter. Mailchimp service provider The Rocket Science Group LLC is a registered company under the EU-US Privacy Shield framework and is therefore GDPR compliant. Mailchimp's Privacy Notice is available at the following link: <https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/>

20. Information on the use of a processor

MOME uses contracted contributors as data processors to support the following activities, on an ad hoc or longer-term basis (data processors used on a permanent basis are indicated in the relevant data processing activity):

- a) accounting, finance;
- b) administrative;
- c) computer system operation;

- d) building management;
- e) personal and property protection;
- f) event management.

The data subjects' data are transferred to these data processors for the purpose of processing personal data on behalf of MOME, in the manner and for the purposes specified by MOME. In the course of their activities, processors are required to ensure that the personal data transferred are only accessed by persons authorised to process them and to implement technical and organisational measures ensuring a level of protection appropriate to the risks presented by the processing. The legal relationship between MOME and its processors is governed by the data processing agreements between the parties.

21. How personal data is stored and how it is protected

MOME stores the personal data recorded in written declarations and contracts in the original written form or in the form of an electronic copy of the original document for the duration of the data retention period specified for each processing operation, and stores the data that are not based on written declarations and contracts in electronic form.

MOME takes appropriate measures to protect personal data against, inter alia, unauthorised access or unauthorised alteration. This is done by storing the data on paper in a locked location and, in the case of data stored in digital format, by protecting the data in accordance with the MOME Policy on the Secure Management, Operation and Use of Information Systems and Data, which classifies data to the security levels of "Open", "Basic", "Enhanced" and "Advanced" and by taking the security measures set for each level.

- a) When the data is stored on paper, the paper documents are kept at the registered office of MOME at 1121 Budapest, Zugligeti út 9-25.
- b) If the data is stored digitally, it is stored digitally on the servers located at the headquarters of MOME at 1121 Budapest, Zugligeti út 9-25.

22. Rights of the data subjects

The Data Subjects may at any time contact MOME at the contact details set out in Section II and

- may request that MOME provide information about the processing of their personal data;
- may request the rectification of their personal data processed by MOME;
- may request the erasure of their personal data processed by MOME and the restriction of processing;
- may request to receive the personal data and to have it transferred by MOME to another controller, provided that the legal preconditions for this are met;
- may object, on grounds relating to their particular situation, to the processing of their personal data based on the legitimate interests of MOME;
- may withdraw their consent to the processing of personal data where the processing is based on consent, with the provision that the withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out prior to the withdrawal.

22.1. Right of access

The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain from MOME confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and receive information about the circumstances of their processing. If the Data Subject's request is manifestly unfounded or if he or she is not entitled to receive the information, or if MOME can prove that the Data Subject has the requested information, MOME shall reject the request for information.

The Data Subject may, at the time of recording or later, decide who is excluded or authorised to access his or her data and to whom information about his or her data may be disclosed. In the absence of a declaration, only and exclusively close relatives may receive information and access the data, provided they have identified themselves in an appropriate manner.

22.2. Right to rectification

The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain from MOME, upon his or her request, the rectification of inaccurate personal data processed by the Controller without undue delay and the completion of incomplete personal data.

22.3. Right to erasure

The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain from MOME, upon his or her request, the erasure of personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- the personal data are no longer needed;
- if the consent underlying the processing is withdrawn and there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- the Data Subject objects to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
- if the personal data was unlawfully processed by MOME;
- if the personal data must be erased by law.

MOME shall not erase the data if the processing is necessary (i) for the exercise of the right to freedom of expression and information; or (ii) for compliance with an obligation under a law that requires the processing of personal data; or (iii) or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

22.4. Right to restriction of processing

The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain from MOME, upon his or her request, the restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the Data Subject, for a period enabling MOME to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and the Data Subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- MOME no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the Data Subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
- the Data Subject has objected to processing; in this event the restriction is pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the Data Subject.

Where processing has been restricted, the personal data subjected by the restriction shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the Data Subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State. MOME will inform the Data Subject in advance of the lifting of the restriction. If MOME establishes that the objection is justified, it shall terminate the processing as soon as possible and notify the objection to all those to whom it has previously disclosed the Data Subject's data.

22.5. The right to object

The Data Subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to the processing of his or her personal data processed on the basis of MOME's legitimate interest. In this case MOME shall no longer process the personal data unless MOME demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the Data Subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

22.6. Right to data portability

Where it does not infringe the rights and freedoms of others, the Data Subject is entitled to receive his or her personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. He or she also has the right to have these data transmitted by MOME directly to another controller if

- processing is based on the Data Subject's consent, or is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the Data Subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the Data Subject prior to entering into a contract; and
- processing is automated, i.e. personal data are processed in an IT system and not on paper.

22.7. Processing of the Data Subject's request

The Data Subject may send his/her request to exercise the above rights to the contact details of MOME as set out in Section II. MOME shall provide information on the measures and actions taken on the request no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the request or, if no action is taken, it shall provide information about the reasons for the lack of action no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the request. At that time, MOME will also inform the Data Subject of his or her rights of redress.

The Data Subject may request information on processing once a year free of charge. If the Data Subject requests further information regarding the same set of data in a given year, MOME shall be entitled to claim reimbursement of costs, the amount and the due date of which shall be determined on the basis of the specific circumstances of the case.

23. Legal Remedies

If MOME rejects the Data Subject's request, the Data Subject may lodge an objection to the rejection with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (address: 1125 Budapest, Szilágyi Erzsébet fasor 22/c.; phone: +36-1-391-1400; e-mail ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu) or may bring the case to the court having competence according to his/her place of residence or domicile.

This Data Processing Notice may be unilaterally amended and/or withdrawn by MOME at any time, by informing the Data Subjects at the same time. Such information shall be provided by publication on the website or, depending on the nature of the change, by direct notification to the Data Subjects.

If you believe that MOME is not acting lawfully in the processing of your personal data, please first communicate your observations or requests to MOME, acting as the controller, using one of the contact details listed above, in order to enable us to process and handle your observation as quickly and efficiently as possible.
